Delray beach police department accident reports

Our commitment to our citizens as a professional public service organisation, we strive to preserve the integrity of our department and its members as we do the business of law enforcement, which extends from community-based policing and crime prevention to the fight against crime. The integrity of our agency depends on the personal integrity and discipline of each employee/member. The complaints process is an integral part of maintaining this integrity and discipline and directly reflects our continued commitment to excellence. If you need to file a complaint, make sure that your concerns are treated with respect and professionalism. The Delray Beach Police Department will investigate all complaints against the department or its employees in accordance with its rules, policies and procedures. Complaints should be legitimate, and if proven to be false, employees have the right to sue for punitive/defamation damages resulting from false claims. Citizens' Complaints Deals with any concerns or complaints raised with a member or activity of the department. Informal complaints can be anonymous. The complaints process All complaints are addressed to the shift commander or a senior on duty. The supervisor will (if possible) meet in person with the complainant and determine the nature of the complaint. If the complaint cannot be resolved, the supervisory authority will receive a statement of appeal (if the complainant wants to). The supervisory authority shall draw up an initial investigation notice and provide the complainant with a copy of the letter entitled Important information on the submission of citizens' complaints. Types of complaints Internal affairs investigations with serious breaches of behavior. As a rule, an affidavit or an affidavit from the complainant is required. Supervision usually refers to minor misconduct. Often examined by the manager of the employee concerned. The purposes for internal investigations Protect the public Protect the department Protect the employee Identify and remove personnel who are not suitable to serve our citizens identify and correct procedural problems The police chief will review the investigation and determine which category describes the results: Investigation results confirmed - claims supported by sufficient evidence to justify a reasonable conclusion that the action(s) occurred and violations. November 30It's the best time of the year – for porch pirates, opportunistic thieves who grab parcels from front doors and letterboxes before their owners can bring them in. As many of our Delray Beach residents try to limit personal interactions, many use online shopping offerings like Cyber Monday sales. Here are 5 simple tips to keep your Cyber Monday packages out of the hands of veranda pirates. 1) Send packages to your business location. 2) Sign in to receive a notification when the package is delivered. 3) Ask a neighbor to retrieve them. 4) Track your packages online. 5) Do you need a signature. 6) Install and monitor your home with a doorbell security system. Remember, most of these thefts are crimes of opportunity, anything you can do to minimize the exposure of your valuables will be helpful. #HolidayTips #HolidaySeason #CyberMonday #TEAMDelrayNov 29On behalf of the Community Oriented Policing Unit, we would like to thank everyone who has donated to the Thanksgiving Food Drive Giveaway.
